DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1, 3, 5 – 9, 11, 12, 14, 16, and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Heddaya et al. (U.S. Pat. No. 6,622,157) (Extending Network Services Using Mobile Agents).

2.1 Regarding claim 1, Heddaya discloses a method of caching data video files comprising:

providing a first computer (Abstract; Fig. 1; col. 3, lines 50 - 64);

providing a second computer (Abstract; Fig. 1; col. 3, lines 50 - 64);

establishing a peer to peer network relationship between said first computer (STB) and said second computer (STB) (Abstract; Fig. 1; col. 6, lines 53 – 57 “the principals of the invention are equally applicable to peer-to-peer networks.”); utilizing a global communication network (the Internet) to establish said peer to peer relationship (Fig. 1; col. 6, lines 44 – 49 “network 10 is the Internet”); conveying a video file from said first computer to said second computer (col. 6, lines 30 - 35); and caching said video file at a caching computer (Figs. 1, 4; col. 3, lines 52 – 64; col. 6, lines 9 – 20 “cache servers”);

Art Unit: 2141

transmitting a request sent from a third computer to said first computer for said video file (Abstract fulfills service requests”; Figs. 1, 4); intercepting a request for said video file sent by a third computer to said first computer (Abstract “intercepting, at the intermediate node”; Figs. 1, 4; col. 3, lines 45 - 64);

transmitting said video file from said caching computer to said third computer in response to said intercepted request (Abstract; Figs. 1, 4; col. 3, lines 45 - 64).

2.2 Per claim 3, Heddaya teaches the method as described in claim 1 wherein said caching said video file comprises: caching said video file at a location where said second computer is located (Abstract; Figs. 1, 4).

2.3 Regarding claim 5, Heddaya discloses the method as described in claim 4 and further comprising: directing said third computer to obtain said video file from said caching computer (Abstract; Figs. 1, 4).

Art Unit: 2141

2.4 As per claim 6, Heddaya teaches the method as described in claim 5 and further comprising: establishing communications between said third computer and said caching computer; and conveying said video file to said third computer (Abstract; Figs. 1, 4).

2.5 Regarding claim 7, Heddaya discloses the method as described in claim 1 and further comprising:

providing an intermediate computer to facilitate communications between said first computer and said third computer (Abstract; Figs. 1, 4; col. 3, lines 45 – 64 “dedicated intermediate nodes within the network”);

intercepting a request of said third computer for said video file (Abstract; Figs. 1, 4).

2.6 As per claim 8, Heddaya teaches the method as described in claim 7 and further comprising: directing said third computer to said caching computer so as to obtain said video file (Abstract; Figs. 1, 4).

2.7 Regarding claim 9, Heddaya discloses the method as described in claim 7 and further comprising: utilizing said intermediate computer as said caching computer (Abstract; Figs. 1, 4).

2.8 Regarding claims 11, 12, 14, 16, and 18, the rejection of claims 1, 3, and 5 – 9 under 35 USC 102(e) (paragraphs 2.1 – 2.7 above) applies fully.

Response to Arguments

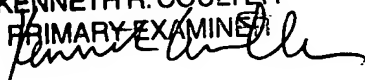

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 3, 5 – 9, 11, 12, 14, 16, and 18 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
